EASTHAMPTON ANNOUNCES LAUNCH OF NEW CITY WEBSITE

EASTHAMPTON, MA – Thursday, July 15th, an upgraded City website, www.easthamptonma.gov, goes public at 9:00 am. The improved website gives users more accessible access to the City's personnel, services, and departments.

The landing page has an improved search bar for site navigation. Completely ADA accessible, visitors see the latest city news in a carousel format, a request tracker to report potholes & street light outages, and official city meeting notices. Based on public requests, you can sign-up for notifications related to the City by categories of interest by text or email.

The website features include links to our social media accounts and provide translation in several languages. Also, detailed governmental information, officials, meetings, city departments, city parks, local ordinances, maps, online payment options quickly accessed by visitors.

Municipal Clerk Lindsy Mailler successfully lead the project over the last 17 months with residents, city departments, and website developers.

Please send suggestions and comments to Lindsy at lmailler@easthamptonma.gov to improve the site.
